Presents

The Norton Simon Museum

Thursday, February 22, 2024

Please join us on a new adventure to the Norton Simon Museum in Pasadena, which opened in the 1960s. Come experience the Museum's magnificent art collections which include European and American Paintings and Sculpture. Our private one-hour tour will be "Highlights of the Collection."

A box lunch at The Garden Café is included. Lunch includes potato chips, fruit cup, a cookie and a beverage (i.e., soft drink, water, or iced tea). Choose from one of the following entrees: Ham & Swiss Cheese sandwich; Turkey Pesto sandwich; or Southwest Caesar Salad.

You will have free time to explore the Gardens and art collections on your own. The Museum's Sculpture Garden is a delight for visitors of all ages. While the garden is not an exact replica of Monet's Giverny, the lush texture and rambling spirit of Giverny is evident.

Walking and mobility are at your own pace. We will board our bus for home at 5:00pm.

➡ PLEASE NOTE: Masks are no longer required. However, that may change at the time of our departure. The Museum strongly recommends face coverings when in the indoor areas, regardless of vaccination status. Audio tours can be accessed via personal mobile devices (audio-tour); please remember to bring your own headphones to use in the Museum galleries. Coat check is limited. Please leave all bags, purses, or other carried items larger than 11" X 15" at home or in the bus. They will not be permitted in the galleries or garden. Also, keep this flyer for your records.
